Let's Go to Dinner 2017

All trips are $39.00 and include transportation, dinner and one surprise.

NOTE: If reservations for all 10 trips are made at one time, price is $35.00.

Jan. 12                      Rock Cafe, Stroud

This historical cafe on Route 66 specializes in chicken-fried steak.

Feb. 16                      Giuseppe's, Marlow

Set in historic State National Bank building in the heart of Marlow, known far and wide for the AMAZING Italian fare.

Mar. 16                      Clanton's, Vinita

Featured on Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives and the food network. Clanton's boasts of hearty American, down-home cookin'

Apr. 20                      Mrs. Miller's Amish

Traditional, delicious, Amish food, served in a Amish home.

May 11                      Chow House at the Arena, Inola

This unique steak house overlooks a working arena.

Jun. 08                      Eischen's, Okarche

Chicken anyone? The oldest continually operated bar in Oklahoma, known for tasty chicken.

Jul. 13                      Tomato Patch Cafe at Farmers Daughter, Tecumseh

As we search for good home cooking, nobody does it better than Farmer's Daughter. Her bakery offers you an opportunity to take home some of her wonderful desserts with you.

Sep. 14                      Molly's Landing, Catoosa

Steaks & other American fare, plus a variety of wine, presented in a cozy, kitsch-filled log cabin.

Oct. 19                      Catfish Roundup, Seminole

Always a favorite for catfish lovers, but some of us go for the yeast rolls and apple fritters. (They offer menu items other than fish.)

Nov. 30                      MYSTERY

This elegant dining experience will serve as our holiday dinner and our final Let's Go to Dinner of 2017.
