Dallas Blooms

March 29, 2018

Recognized as One of the Top 14 Places in the World to See Spring Flowers by MSN.com in 2010, Dallas Blooms is the largest floral festival in the southwest with over 500,000 spring-blooming bulbs. Tulips, daffodils and hyacinths abound in the 66 acre garden with vibrant colors creating an amazing backdrop to the city of Dallas.

8:00 Depart for Dallas via AMTRAK

On Arrival in Ft. Worth the motorcoach will be waiting at the station to transport us to the Dallas Arboretum in time for a late lunch. Following lunch enjoy DALLAS BLOOMS...Our afternoon will be filled with 66 acres of beautiful blooms and blossoms as the backdrop for many other activities included at the arboretum. Click, click, click go those camera shutters.

5:00 Depart for Oklahoma City – BUT wait we can't just drive past Babe's Chicken House....let's stop for dinner, on our own.

Early evening arrive back in Oklahoma City with memory banks and cameras full of the beauty of the day. Dallas Blooms will be the topic of discussion as we share with our friends at home.
