All Things Tulips

April 14, 2018

It is Tulip Time in Kansas.....

Our first stop will be in Wichita, KS at Botanica, the Wichita Gardens. The gardens include 10 acres of theme gardens with a butterfly garden, Shakespeare garden, rose & wildflower Garden, greenhouse, aquatic garden, woodland walk, and the new Sensory Garden. The Gardens are beautiful every season of the year but never more spectacular than in the spring when tulips are in bloom.

Enjoy an included lunch at the Botanica.

As we head back south our next stop will be the Bartlett Arboretum in Belle Plains, KS. The first weekend in April each year the Arboretum hosts Tulip Time.

The Arboretum located 20 miles south of Wichita, hosted the first Tulip Festival in 1926. The festival was held every year until 1942 and then closed during World War II. The garden is now open and celebrates spring with Tulip Time, showcasing 30,000 tulips along with many other flowers and plants, attractive grounds, variety of other art forms all in a peaceful setting.

Spend time visiting the booths of craftsman and artisans from the area while enjoying the variety of music and strolling through the tulips.

Afternoon tasty treat included before departure.

Early evening arrive back in Oklahoma City area with visions of Tulip Time in Kansas.
