AZALEAS & AMISH

April 24, 2018

Muskogee and Mazie....30 miles and two worlds apart.

Our morning will be spent at Honor Heights Park in Muskogee. The park is the site of 30,000 plants and 625 varieties of azaleas, 3,500 rose bushes, 60 varieties of Dogwood trees plus numerous Redbud trees and many other spring flowers. The Annual Azalea Festival hosts thousands of visitors each spring. TAKE YOUR CAMERAS

Our late lunch awaits us in Mazie, prepared by the Amish ladies of the home. Reminiscent of Sunday dinners at Grandma's house, the yeast rolls top the list of most popular followed closely by the WONDERFUL pies. Too many items to mention make up the entrée and side dishes...there will be no need to stop for dinner on the way home.

Early evening arrive back home with our memories resonating the sounds of clicking camera shutters at the park and moans and groans from the satisfied appetites in the Amish country.
