New England Fall Foliage

Oct. 3-18, 2018

Featuring:

Niagara Falls, ON...Berlin, OH...Casey, IL...Kingston, ON...Vermont...New Hampshire...Maine...New York City...Hershey, PA...West Virginia...Lexington, KY...Memphis, TN and MORE!!!

Fall colors painted by the touch of the Master's hand provide a show of splendor ranging from bright to brilliant to unbelievable. White church steeples, quaint villages and covered bridges all with blazing red, gold, and orange as the backdrop results in a fall trip you could have only dreamed of.

Wednesday, Oct. 3 Oklahoma City to Collinsville, IL

With energy levels high and the luggage bins filled to the brim, our "fall foliage" journey begins with some morning snacks and fellowship. Our first day together takes us across Missouri, across the Mighty Mississippi River and into Illinois.

Thursday, Oct. 4 Collinsville to Columbus, OH Fly in option

Today's drive takes through the states of Illinois, Indiana and into Ohio. Morning break will be spent in Casey, IL, the Small Town with the Big Things. Always a fun stop... MANY photo ops here. Late afternoon arrive in Columbus for our overnight. TIME change today CB

Friday, Oct. 5 Columbus to Berlin, OH

Our drive this morning through Ohio Amish country gives us an introduction to the peaceful lifestyle of the Amish people. Our included lunch gives us a glimpse into their home life as we enjoy an Amish meal in an Amish home. Our step-on guide will share about the history and modern day Amish in Ohio.

Early afternoon arrive in Berlin with some shopping time in this quaint village before checking into our hotel for some R&R before an evening at the Amish Country Theater.....Award-Winning Live Theater in Ohio's Amish Country! Hold on to your seats and get ready for some explosive laughter! Voted a Top 100 Event in North America by the American Bus Association, Amish Country Theater's shows are performed in a remarkable 325-seat auditorium with state-of-the art lighting, video, and sound. Plus, every event is designed to be fun for the whole family, from the littlest young'uns to the orneriest grand pappy!

Saturday, Oct. 6 Berlin to Niagara Falls, ON

AM depart for Niagara Falls. Our first view of the falls will be from the American side on Goat Island and then crossing into Ontario. On arrival a local step-on guide will be with us for a tour of Niagara Falls, ON highlight.

Passports needed today.

Evening – Falls view dinner included. CB,D

Sunday, Oct. 7 Niagara Falls to Kingston, ON

AM African Lion Safari - Go "On Safari!" and get CLOSER than you ever imagined to over 1,000 exotic birds and animals that roam free in seven large Game Reserves. Word is we will have more fun than a barrel of monkeys ...that will be especially true with monkeys and baboons are crawling all of the bus and peaking in the windows. Always a favorite stop!

Afternoon drive takes us through Toronto on our way to Kingston for the overnight. Dinner included. B,D

Monday, Oct. 8 Kingston to Rutland, VT

With the cooperation of the weather, our foliage tour begins in earnest today as we delight in some of the most impressive foliage to be seen on our tour - just a sampling of things to come. Vivid fall colors abound throughout upper state New York. Lunch, on our own and free time in Lake Placid. A late afternoon ferry ride finds us in Rutland . The Adirondacks are the source of the color and scenery for our ferry ride. Dinner on own B

Tuesday, Oct. 9 Rutland to Lincoln, NH

Vermont Highlights are the order of the day. Besides multiple stops for Kodak moments of covered bridges and quaint villages, our visits today will include Woodstock, Quechee Gorge and Morse Sugar Farm.

The Green Mountains of Vermont and New Hampshire turn to crimson, gold and brilliant orange and seem to dance before our eyes as we travel through the countryside. Crossing over into New Hampshire for our overnight. CB, D

Wednesday, Oct. 10 Lincoln to Ogunquit, ME

AM Visit the Flume Gorge Visitors center. Can you hear the whistle blowing? The Hobo Railroad train provides a wonderful excursion into the heart of the White Mountains while we enjoy a lunch on board. Following our train ride, depart for Ogunquit. The famous Kancamangus Highway is our drive of choice this afternoon. The term “meandering” comes to mind as we consider today’s itinerary driving through incredibly beautiful scenery making our way into Maine. Evening free, dinner on own. CB, L

Thursday, Oct. 11 Ogunquit

Our free day allows for time to do shopping in this charming village, (shops are just around the corner from the hotel.), enjoy a leisurely walk on the beach, or just spend some R& R in this amazing spot. CB
Evening Lobster Dinner – a true Maine experience.

Friday, Oct. 12 Ogunquit to Gloucester, MA

AM Tour of Light House

Lunch on own

Afternoon – Whale Watch cruise

Evening - Free

Saturday, Oct. 13 Gloucester to Shelton, CT area

AM, this is the day we get to "meander", (make our way slowly through the villages of New England) on our way to the Salem Cross Inn.

Lunch – Salem Cross Inn Restaurant and Tavern in West Brookfield, MA. Welcome to the Salem Cross Inn, a 1700's era farmhouse nestled on 600 acres of working New England farmland. The Inn provides guests with a colonial experience through dining-offering colonial fare and their extensive furnishings of American antiques.

This afternoon will be a difficult choice of taking a nap, on a very full tummy, or continuing to take in the beauty of the countryside.

Early evening – Arrive in Connecticut for our overnight. CB,L

Sunday, Oct. 14 Shelton to New York City to Hershey, PA

We have scheduled our visit to New York City on a Sunday to avoid as much traffic as possible.

Depart for Hershey, PA. Dinner included on arrival. CB, D

Monday, Oct. 15 Hershey to Ligonier, PA

AM Milton Hershey Foundation and School tour. As we learn about Milton Hershey's life and experience the gifts he has left behind, we will leave this area with a new determination to eat all the Hershey chocolate we can hold.

Afternoon - An inspiring afternoon with visits to Flight 93 National Memorial and the Quecreek Mine Rescue Site. Each of these stops will bring back memories of events we all remember; 9/11/2001, the day America was attacked and July 2002, three days during which nine trapped miners were rescued from 240 feet beneath a farmer's field. Dinner included to bring this amazing day to an end. CB,D

Tuesday, Oct. 16 Hershey to Lexington, KY

As we make our way through the beautiful Laurel Highlands and into Kentucky, we begin to ask ourselves, how much prettier can the scenery be? As Kentucky horse farms come into view, we ooh and ahh and realize we did not leave breathtaking views in New England.

Included dinner tonight Kentucky style. CB,D

Wednesday, Oct. 17 Lexington to Memphis, TN

Time change today.

AM Breakfast Kentucky style

Arrive in Memphis in time to freshen up before our included dinner overlooking the Mississippi River. B,D

Thursday, Oct. 18 Memphis to Oklahoma City

Regardless of all the beauty we've seen, all the wonderful food we've eaten or memories that we've made...there is no feeling greater than crossing the Oklahoma line and knowing that our friends and loved ones are anxious for our return.

Late afternoon arrive in Oklahoma City with cherished memories of our sixteen days together. CB
