Southern Gems

March 20-24, 2019

Antebellum homes, gardens ablaze with beautiful spring foliage, Southern Hospitality at its best, and Old South history await us on this Southern Gems Tour.

March 20 Oklahoma City to West Monroe, LA D

As is always the case, our first day of travel will be spent getting acquainted with our fellow travelers, tour director and driver while enjoying the spring scenery as we travel to West Monroe.

Late afternoon arrive in time to freshen up before an included dinner and then an optional opportunity to attend Whites Ferry Road Church of Christ midweek service. You will be blessed,...and who knows, you might see some famous folks in the congregation.

March 21 West Monroe to Vidalia, LA, Natchez CB,D

AM Visit The Duck Commander and the Chenault Military Museum before departing for Natchez. Our home for the next two nights will be in Vidalia, LA, just across the bridge from Natchez, Ms. Our hotel sets on the Mississippi River with an incredible view from the large patio that stretches along the Mississippi. Before departing West Monroe, visit Chenault Aviation & Military Museum. Mid-afternoon Arrive in Natchez where our horse and buggy await us for our horse drawn, narrated tour of this enchanting Antebellum city.

Dinner – Included before the evening performance of Southern Exposure.

Evening – the Natchez Little Theater Playhouse. A charming and delightful tale about life in the South.
