Queen's Coronation..Queen's Tea..Arts and Crafts..Rose Fields Tour.. Rose Parade

Discover why people keep coming back, year after year, to be part of Texas' most beautiful event. You'll be overwhelmed by the unbelievable aroma of hundreds of thousands of roses displayed in artful arrangements at the Rose Show, growing in manicured beds in the Rose Garden and covering hundreds of acres in the rose fields. When your eyes have taken it all in, treat your ears and tap your feet as the bands march by in the Rose Festival Parade.

Come see why everyone who visits the Texas Rose Festival leaves saying, "I'll be back!"

Oct. 17 Oklahoma City to Tyler, TX

Our morning will be spent enjoying refreshments and fellowship with our fellow passengers as we make our way to Tyler, TX. Our afternoon arrival in Tyler will allow us time to enjoy Rose Nursery Tours before our included evening dinner. D

Oct. 18 Tyler, TX

First on the agenda is a morning visit to the Rose Museum which features a spectacular display of items relating to Tyler's rose growing industry. More than sixty years of Texas Rose Festival history is highlighted with various queens' gowns and other memorabilia. The Rose Garden Center with 14 acres and more than 400 varieties of brilliant roses is the focal point for the Queen's Tea with the Rose Queen and Tyler Court dressed in full costume. We will enjoy an included dinner together before attending the Rose Queen's Coronation. B, D

Oct. 19 Tyler, TX to Oklahoma City

Full breakfast included. This morning enjoy the Texas Rose Festival Parade with reserved seats. Following the parade we will board our coach with our cameras (or I phones) maxed out with pictures and stories behind them to share with our loved ones at home. Early evening return to Oklahoma City.
