

Christmas in Guthrie

December 7, 2019

Depart for Guthrie.... Oklahoma Victorian Capital. On arrival we'll meet our step-on guide to begin our Territorial Christmas Celebration with the Distinctive Home Tour.

Some of Guthrie's finest homes, churches and buildings will be dressed for Christmas.

Lunch time finds us at Stacey's Place – where "Oklahoma History" meets "Home Cooking with a Little Soul".

2:00 pm – Pollard Theater – It's a Wonderful Life

Evening – Victorian walk - Listen to the sweet sounds of carolers dressed in period clothing. Sip wassail or hot chocolate while strolling among the historic red brick streets and buildings. Browse downtown shop windows filled with live visions of everyday Victorian life. Keep your eyes alert! We may even stumble across a few Territorial Governors, past and present, willing to pose for a photo.

All good things come to an end. Early evening return to Oklahoma City area....no question, we have been infused with Christmas Spirit while enjoying Guthrie's Territorial Christmas,

Merry Christmas!
