War Eagle Arts and Crafts

Oct. 17, 2019

The Ozarks are never more beautiful than in the fall. The entire area of Northwest Arkansas comes alive with brilliant color and artisans displaying their creations at the MANY craft shows in the region.

War Eagle Crafts Fair began in 1954 as an opportunity to showcase the arts of the Ozark people. Nearly 60 years later, the fair attracts hundreds of artists and provides the largest craft show in the central US.

Oct. 17, 2019 OKC to War Eagle to OKC

6:00 AM Departure. Rise and shine is the order of the day. In order to get to War Eagle and spend the day shopping til we drop, we must get an early start.

Spend the morning having a cup of coffee (or two, or three) and some tasty snacks and getting acquainted with all the other Arts and Crafts friends, as we make our way to Northwest Arkansas.

Even with an early start, we can expect to encounter a long line as we approach the crafts fair...BUT...our advantage is the buses get to park up front once we get to the entrance.

Anticipated time of arrival is 10:30ish. Remainder of the day HAVE A GOOD TIME!!! Box lunch will be provided for you to enjoy at your leisure.

Late afternoon depart for Oklahoma City area.

A stop in planned to grab a bite for dinner, fast food, enroute.

10:00ish Arrive back in Oklahoma City area with the bus bays bulging.....What fun!!!
